NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

At the time this was being written on Monday it was still too early to know how we came out at the hearing in Austin last Thursday. The subcommittee will have to meet, hopefully sometime this week, and come up with the bills as they will be presented to the Senate. From there they will go to the House and probably more hearings and then back to the Senate, if the House makes any changes.

The legislative process in this democracy of ours is at best a slow moving giant.

Since I have no idea as to how the subcommittee is going to report out our bill—especially since one of the three members of the committee did not attend the hearing—I will just confine my remarks to a few observations made during the trip to Austin.

About the first thing that struck us was the fact that we were not going to get the impartial hearing that we were led to believe we would get. If Senator A. B. Schwartz did not already have his mind made up before the hearing, it surely did not take him long to arrive at a decision. And this was apparently well before he even bothered to hear our side. In fact he seemed to go out of his way to be rude to Jack Willingham, spokesman for Hamlin's bill.

Sen. Schwartz seemed to be of the opinion that the ideal hospital district was along county lines which thrilled the delegation from Fisher County to no end. Based on this line of reasoning I can only wonder why the need to ever create a hospital district.

If a county-wide district is the perfect answer then why not just have a county hospital without creating another bureaucratic monster with taxing authority. It was my understanding that the purpose of hospital districts was to take care of problems such as ours where a city is a county-line city.

While it is not always possible to create, it seems to me that the best hospital district would be the one that takes in only the area served. But as I say, this is not always possible because Legislatures in the past have created districts along county lines.

Ideally, both Hamlin and Stamford would have liked to have been able to draw a circle around their area and ask for a district that included only people served by the hospitals. But in both cases it is too late because there is a district in Haskell and Stonewall Counties. So we go south to make up for the land we lost to the north and this makes the people to the south unhappy.

We try to go to the west and about all we can get out of Sen. Schwartz is that we have a problem.

One other observation on the trip to Austin was that it is time to look around for a new County Tax Assessor-Collector. When the present one becomes one of the leaders in the movement fighting all three hospital districts in the county and uses the prestige of that office in the fight, then I think it is time to replace him.

I seemed to have been joined in this thought by a great many of the delegation in Austin supporting these districts.

I have no argument with Louis T. Johnson opposing the Anson District where he lives, especially as an individual. But when he becomes one of the main spokesmen for the group opposing all three districts then I became upset.

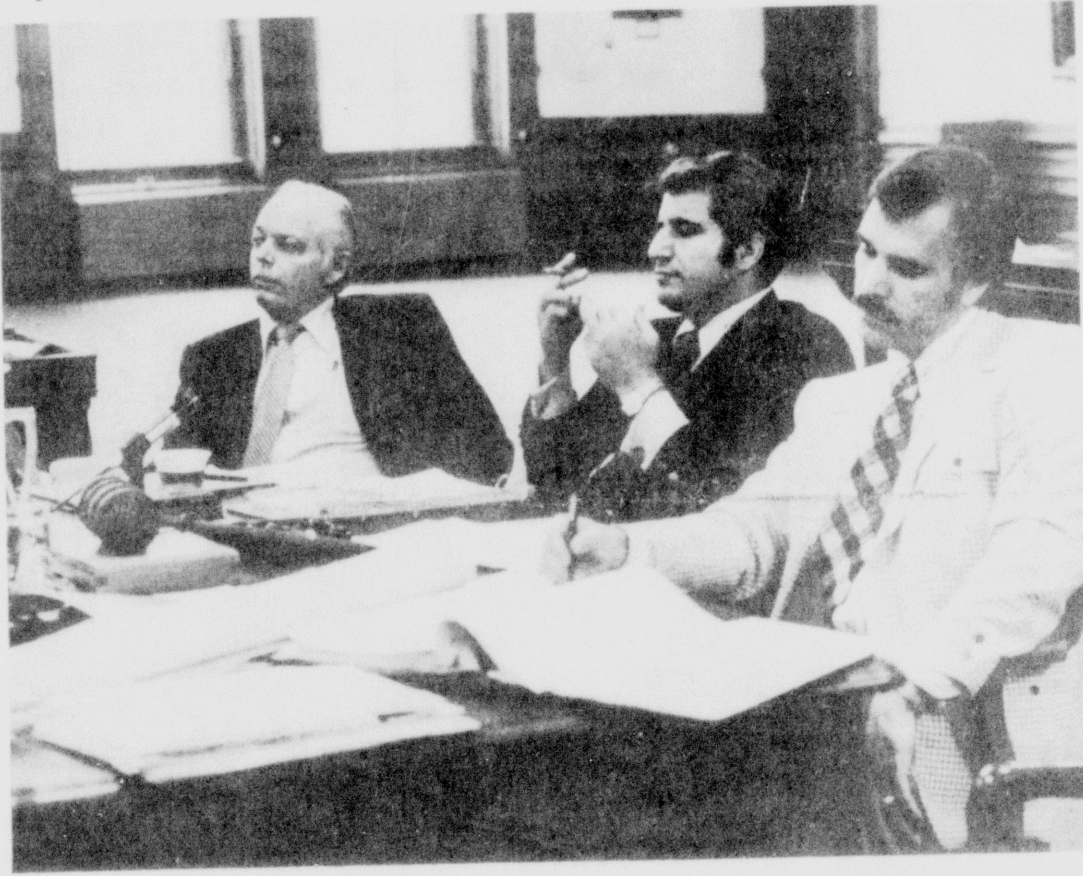

I just don't like for an elected county official to be fighting against the right of the people of Hamlin forming a hospital district—if they want one.

One last observation from the trip to Austin is that Texas badly needs annual sessions for its Legislature. I TALKING IT OVER — Jack Willingham talks with Jim West of Stamford about the hearing just concluded before a Senate Subcommittee in Austin Thursday. Looking on is W. T. Johnson. Both Willingham and Johnson were in Austin to support the Hamlin Hospital District bill and West was one of the spokesmen for the expansion of the Stamford district.

CONDUCTING THE HEARING — Only two of the three member Senate Public Health and Welfare Subcommittee were on hand for the hearing on the Jones and Fisher County Hospital District bills. At left is Sen. A. B. Schwartz of Galveston and in the middle is Bob Gammage of Houston, chairman. At the right is an unidentified aide. Because of the huge crowd on hand for the hearing it was held on the Senate floor.

Local Hospital Leaders Await Senate Decision

Leaders in the movement to have the Legislature create hospital districts in Jones County were still waiting word from the Senate Public Health and Welfare Subcommittee which heard arguments for and against the various bills last Thursday in Austin.

The bills, sponsored by Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon, would create hospital districts in Anson, Hamlin and Fisher County and would expand the existing Stamford district.

The hearing, originally scheduled for the Lt. Governor's Committee Room in the Capitol, was moved to the Senate floor because of the huge crowd. A small group of community leaders from Stamford, Anson and Hamlin were on hand in support of their three bills, while those opposing the hospital districts were in Austin in large numbers.

Wayne Harris of Rotan testified in favor of the Fisher County hospital district and argued against the Hamlin district that included a part of Fisher County. The Fisher County bill was the first to come before the subcommittee and was followed by the Hamlin bill. Following testimony on these two bills the subcommittee heard arguments for and against the Anson district and then the Stamford district.

Harris told the subcommittee that the land in conflict between the two bills held a rich oil field and a major industry and "is important to the construction of a hospital district in Fisher County."

He said that without the land Hamlin was seeking for its district, there would not be enough funds for the Fisher district.

Jack Willingham, Hamlin attorney, spoke for the Hamlin bill and against that part of the Fisher County bill that overlapped the Hamlin area. He told the subcommittee that the loss of the land in Fisher County would not jeopardize the establishment of a Fisher County District.

He said that if the Hamlin district was created along the lines proposed in the Hamlin bill it would be "just an equitable solution to each of our medical problems."

"The one thing we do agree on is each of our hospitals is vital," Willingham said in closing.

Joe Ford, Hamlin mayor, also spoke in favor of the Hamlin bill and pointed out that the existing hospital is very close to the county line. "The hospital district needs that portion for that reason," he said.

A few landowners from the southern part of Jones County spoke in opposition to the Hamlin bill and then later a more organized effort was directed at all three Jones County bills.

Sen. Bob Gammage, subcommittee chairman, told the group at the close of the hearing that Jones County has a problem. He said, "We will do our best to solve your problem, but we will not make everybody happy."

The bills, as they are voted out of the subcommittee, will then be voted on by the full committee and then the Senate. From there they will be sent to the House of Representatives where they will be sent to another subcommittee for another hearing. There they can be amended or accepted.

Again the bills will be voted out of the subcommittee and passed by the full committee and the full House. If they are the same as they came from the Senate they will go to the Governor to be signed into law. If they are changed in any way from the original Senate version they will have to go back to the Senate before going to the Governor.

Friday Is Last Day To Buy Tags Here

Friday will be the last day to purchase car tags in Hamlin, according to L. J. Cunningham of Cunningham Insurance Agency, local substation for registering motor vehicles.

The 1973 license plates must be displayed on vehicles registered in Texas starting Monday, Apr. 2.

Those persons who fail to purchase tags locally by 5 p.m. Friday will have until noon Saturday to get them in the office of Louis T. Johnson, tax assessor-collector, in the Jones County courthouse in Anson.

Johnson said that the office would be open only until noon.

Robert W. Townsley, director of the Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department, said many county tax officers had expressed concern that the pace of registration this year has slowed markedly. "It looks as if a great many vehicle owners are putting registration off to the last minute," he said.

Even though the easy, computerized registration system has speeded the registration process in the last few years, if too many owners wait until the last minute, long waits in long lines at county tax offices and substations seem inevitable, he said.

First Aid Course Set Saturday

A Basic First Aid Course will be taught by Sgt. Doyce Gillilan of the Hamlin Police Department and Ralph Ferguson of McCoy Funeral Home Saturday (Mar. 31) from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The course is open to the public and there will be no charge. The only expense will be the purchase of a book at $2.50.

The session will be held in the Civil Defense room upstairs at City Hall.

An advanced course to be held two nights a week will be announced later, according to Police Chief Ed Wheat.

Easter Seal Drive Planned

Mrs. Bill Feagan has announced that the house to house campaign for Easter Seals in Hamlin has been set for Thursday, Apr. 5, beginning at 6 p.m.

Mrs. Feagan stressed that all Easter Seals monies go directly to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, which is the Easter Seals treatment center for the Big Country.

The annual campaign provides vital funding for the Center, which treats about 3,000 individuals each year from throughout the area, she added.

Residents Invited To Tea Sunday

All area residents are invited to the welcome reception for Dr. and Mrs. Joe Don Hymer and family Sunday afternoon in the parlor of First United Methodist Church. Hours are from 2 to 4 p.m.

Hosting the reception will be the directors of the Hamlin Board of Community Development and their spouses. They will be assisted by directors of Hamlin Hospital Management, Inc., and Hamlin Memorial Hospital Association and their wives.

Siren Test Set Today

The sirens used by the Civil Defense here for disaster warning will be tested at 6 p.m. today (Thursday).

Residents are urged to remember that it is just a test of the equipment and not a warning of disaster.

APRIL 1-7—

Activities Planned Here To Observe FHA Week

Apr. 1-7 has been designated National FHA Week and members of Future Homemakers of America will carry out special activities and observances designed to share their experiences and accomplishments with family, friends and neighbors.

Locally, Mayor Joe E. Ford, proclaimed the week as FHA Week in Hamlin as the 40 members here join with more than 64,000 future homemakers in Texas in the celebration.

Special activities by the Hamlin members will be preparing the bulletin board in the high school foyer; attending church together, baking cookies to take to the rest home, serving the faculty and sponsoring a bake sale Saturday, Apr. 7, at 10 a.m.

These plans have been outlined by the president, Velanne Rowland. Other officers serving the organization this year and working out details are Kathy Ponder, first and second vice president; Cindy Witt, third vice president; Diane Ford, fourth vice president; Luann Shira, fifth vice president; Dana Wright, secretary-treasurer; Piper Willis, historian; Mignon Williams, sergeant-at-arms; Carla Adair, parliamentarian and Elaine Kelley, pianist.

The theme chosen for this year's National FHA Week is "Explore Roles — Extend Goals" to focus attention on what over half-a-million young men and women in FHA and HERO chapters throughout the country are doing to explore the multiple roles individuals play in family, community and career life.

FHA is a nonprofit, self-supporting organization officially sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education, through the Division of Vocational and Technical Education and the American Home Economics Association. It encompasses two types of chapters: FHA chapters for students in homemaking, consumer and family life education; HERO chapters for students enrolled in home economics related occupations courses.

High school home economics teachers serve as advisors to the 11,000 local FHA chapters throughout the country. Mrs. Edith Carter serves as adult advisor here.

The chapter president, Miss Rowland, points out that several million young people have been challenged by the unlimited opportunities offered through membership in Future Homemakers of America over the 28 years since its establishment as the national organization for high school students in home economics and related occupations.

MAYOR PROCLAIMS FHA WEEK — Mayor Joe E. Ford, seated, hands the signed proclamation designating Apr. 1-7 as FHA Week to Velanne Rowland, left, president of the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America. Also present for the signing are Dana Wright, secretary treasurer, and Kathy Ponder, first vice president, right.

New Paraphrased Bible Best Seller During 1972

"The Living Bible," a paraphrase of the Bible in modern English, was the country's best-selling book in 1972.

It tops Publishers Weekly's non-fiction list on the basis of nearly 2 million sales through Doubleday & Company, Inc. An additional 5 million copies were sold by Tyndale House Publishers. Dr. Kenneth Taylor, who paraphrased "The Living Bible," is president of Tyndale House.

"Jonathan Livingston Seagull," best seller in the fiction category, sold approximately 2 million copies to move to the top of the best-selling fiction books after a slow start.

The two lists were just released by Publishers Weekly, the leading journal of industry. "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" is a modern parable about a seagull who aspires to greater living. It has a smattering of positive thinking, a great deal of metaphysics, and a happy ending.

"The Living Bible" has all this. And more. Publishers Weekly credits "The Living Bible" with making the list from recorded Doubleday sales of 757,216 copies to the trade during the last four months of 1972.

That says nothing of the figures for the other eight months of the year.

Publishers Weekly reminds that the Bible is considered "always the best seller" by the industry. It seldom makes the best-seller list, says the magazine, because "bookstores often neglect to report Bibles, cookbooks and other titles they consider staple stock."

Another reason, reports the magazine, is that the big sale for the Bible is spread widely through middle America rather than in the large metropolitan center stores that chiefly report to Publishers Weekly. This is particularly true of "The Living Bible."

In addition to Doubleday's sale to the trade, Tyndale House, which publishes the entire "Living Bible" has seven other editions — including a children's New Testament (the last half of "The Living Bible") and a youth edition — all in various bindings.

The prices range from $4.95 for paperback versions to $24.95 for elegant leather-bound editions. A green hardcover edition selling in the neighborhood of $10 has been exceptionally well-received.

The additional 5 million copies of "The Living Bible" sold by Tyndale House went to retail outlets not covered by Doubleday.

These retail outlets included variety stores like J. C. Penney's; Sears, Roebuck and Co.; Montgomery Ward; many five and ten cent stores; small Christian bookstores, and church-run bookstores.

"The Living Bible" is rapidly finding its place in seminary classrooms, where many students use it for additional insight into the scriptures. It is also found frequently in study and discussion groups where more than one version of the scripture is desired.

Part of the phenomenal success of "The Living Bible" may be attributed to the description of the Bible itself by Mark Taylor, a Duke University student who is a son of the translator, Kenneth Taylor.

"The Bible can be banned, burned, ignored or denied," said young Taylor. "But it won't go away for it is a living book with a timeless message that has bridged the generation gap for countless centuries. It still retains the power to change lives so that the unusual seems normal and only in retrospect does one observe God working."

"The Living Bible" has outsold such non-fiction books as "I'm O.K., You're O.K." (Harper & Rowe) by Thomas Harris; "Open Marriage" (M. Evans) by Nena and George O'Neill; and "Harry S. Truman" (Morrow) by Margaret Truman. Lower on the list was Ruth Montgomery's "A World Beyond" (Cowan, McCann & Geoghegan). "The Living Bible" also has outsold two cookbooks and a book on weight loss.

It has outsold the fiction list — including Alexander Solzhenitsyn's "August, 1914" (Farrar, Straus & Giroux) and two best sellers by Frederick Forsyth (Viking Press), "The Odessa File" and "The Day of the Jackal."

In fifth place on the fiction list was Irvin Wallace's "The Word" (Simon & Schuster). The book deals with the fictional discovery of an ancient manuscript in Biblical times. "Two From Galilee," Marjorie Holmes' "love story" of Mary and Joseph (Revell) ranked eighth. Lower in fiction was "My Name Is Asher Lev" by Chaim Potok (Knopf) and "Semi-Tough" by Dan Jenkins (Atheneum).

"The Living Bible" is currently being translated and will be printed, by Tyndale House, in 71 other languages.

Just outside the walls of the old city of Jerusalem is an eroded hill that bears a resemblance to a skull, and is called Golgotha. It is said that upon this hill stood three crosses the day that Jesus was crucified. That agonizing day that Christ died is referred to today as "Good Friday".

EASTER

Matthew 28:1-9 & Mark 16:14-20

APRIL 22, 1973

from The LIVING BIBLE

Early on Sunday morning, as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to Jesus' tomb.

Suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and rolled aside the stone and sat on it. His face shone like lightning and his clothing was a brilliant white. The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and fell into a dead faint.

Then the angel spoke to the women. "Don't be frightened!" he said. "I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified, but he isn't here! For he has come back to life again, just as he said he would. Come in and see where his body was lying. . . . And now go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and that he is going to Galilee to meet them there. That is my message to them."

The women ran from the tomb, badly frightened, but also filled with joy, and rushed to find the disciples to give them the angel's message. And as they were running, suddenly Jesus was there in front of them!

"Good morning!" he said. And they fell to the ground before him, holding his feet and worshipping him.

Still later he appeared to the eleven disciples as they were eating together. He rebuked them for their unbelief—their stubborn refusal to believe those who had seen him alive from the dead.

And then he told them, "You are to go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone, everywhere. Those who believe and are baptized will be saved. But those who refuse to believe will be condemned."

When the Lord Jesus had finished talking with them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down at God's right hand.

And the disciples went everywhere preaching, and the Lord was with them and confirmed what they said by the miracles that followed their messages.

Rehab Center to Mark Anniversary With Addition

Directors of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center voted Wednesday to help celebrate the 20th anniversary of the non-profit facility next August by dedicating a new quarter-million-dollar education and training addition made possible by gifts from generous West Texans.

Directors authorized Executive Director Shelley V. Smith to enter into a contract with Rose Construction Company of Abilene, which had submitted the low gross bid on the construction job, $213,350.

The 9,075 square feet of new construction will include a classroom building with five rooms, a new occupational therapy wing, a hallway to connect the two new units to the present building, and additional restroom facilities.

Smith said that there will be no formal groundbreaking ceremonies, so that the contractors could begin work immediately, but said that he hopes construction can be completed by August 15. "That's when we're really going to celebrate," he said. "It'll be our 20th birthday and we can dedicate our new addition, show off the rest of the facility, and kickoff the Cattleman's Round-Up for Crippled Children, all at the same time."

The board president, Chief Justice Austin McCloud of Eastland's 11th Court of Civil Appeals, noted that the new addition will be worth more than $250,000 by the time equipment is purchased, and noted that it will push the value of the physical plant of the WTRC past the $1 million mark.

While the WTRC has the money in hand to construct the new wing, Judge McCloud reminded directors that they must still work to see that the charitable organization raises its half-million dollar budget this year. "We don't want people to think we have all the money we need," Smith said. He added that the generosity of thousands of persons, plus a federal grant, has made the new wing a reality and noted, "We've never built a building that we didn't have the money to pay for when we started." Judge McCloud said that the WTRC will need $15,000 worth of equipment for the new building, plus a fence around the back of the property, and suggested to directors that some civic club might want to help in one of the projects.

Vocational Ag Teachers Attend Training Session

Hamlin High School vocational agriculture teachers, Milburn Wink and Gary Finley, and student teacher, Kenneth Dufensing, attended a Double Mountain District in-service training in Rochester Wednesday.

The program was given by T. L. Leach, head of the Agricultural Education at Texas Tech University. The program was on young farmer and adult farmer work.

Dinner Planned At Oak Grove Saturday

Sylvester

By MRS. R. M. BABB

We on the south side of the track feel pretty good that the twister missed us last week. It didn't miss J. P. Maberry's pasture. With some 200 feet of trees down and the fence completely down, I have decided that twisters have no respect for persons or property.

Blackie Ford's brick house has the north east brick wall and windows gone. The equipment shed is gone as well as all the sheds and small buildings. The tin and sheet iron is all over the country east of where it touched down. Mrs. Velma Reed's home along with Mrs. Clara Montgomery and Woodford Pursley's are all damaged badly. There are so many unusual things that it is hard to describe, but we are hoping that this kind of bad weather is over. We had 6 in. of rain and lots of sand.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Smith of Breckenridge drove out one day last week with lots and lots of fish and several were invited over for fish and all the trimmings. Those present were: Mr. Arch Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stephens, Mr. Sol Mauldin of Roby, Mr. and Mrs. Billy W. Reed of Roby, Mr. and Mrs. Loys Smith and Mrs. Ruth Brown.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Pauline Gray and family in the sudden death of her brother, Lennie Eivens of Ft. Worth last week.

Mrs. Woodrow Lawlis visited with Aunt Mary Jones in Merkel last week. She seems to be doing pretty well.

The W. B. Brown's visited in the Prather home in Sweetwater on Sunday afternoon. Eric and Shelia drove over to Roscoe to visit with Mr. Brown's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mauldin visited with the Kenneth Mauldin's in Clifton over part of last weekend.

Mrs. Evelyn Mauldin of Abilene drove out Friday to visit with her mother, Mrs. Tindal. She was caught in the hail storm in Abilene when she returned.

Mrs. Carra Perkins missed our storm last week and probably a good thing because it was right in her part of town. She was visiting Raymond and his family in Lubbock.

Mrs. Gladys Williams was transferred to Hendrick Hospital in Abilene on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Woodford Pursley and Mrs. Homer Pursley were both doing well in Stamford hospital last Saturday when we checked on them. They both have had surgery.

We are all very sorry to learn that the L. T. Watsons have sold their farm and all their equipment and will probably be leaving us. We shall miss them very much.

The community had its monthly supper last Wednesday night at the Methodist Church. Pauline Coalson of Robert Lee brought her slides of the Holy Land and showed them along with a very interesting talk about all she saw while touring the Holy Land. She is an aunt of Mrs. Thurmon Douglass. There was a good crowd with visitors from Trent.

The weekly Bible study was in the T. A. Douglass home this past Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ruth Brown and Mrs. Glenna Turner were in Abilene on business Monday afternoon. Lea Dickerson is in Stamford hospital but is slightly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dillard of San Angelo visited in the R. M. Babb home on Monday.

Guests in the Raymond Griffin home over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Mann of Sweetwater and Mr. and Mrs. John Stephenson of Midland.

By Bernice D. White

Dalton Gill, who has served as superintendent of Old Glory School for the past six years, has announced that he has accepted the position of superintendent of the Aspermont School. We join with Mr. Gill's other friends here in wishing him well in his new job. We will miss Mr. and Mrs. Gill and Mitch in our community, but are glad they will still be in the county.

Old Glory students will be participating in various UIL events on the District level this week. Perhaps next week we will be able to report on some blue ribbon winners, and also on some high school students who have qualified to go on to the Regional events.

4-H MEETING

The Old Glory 4-H Club met on Wednesday, Mar. 7, with their new leader, Mrs. Marilyn Martin. The meeting was called to order and the minutes were approved. Billie Jo Baitz led the pledge, prayer and motto.

County Agent Truette Hennig, was present to discuss projects with the members. He called their attention to some events coming up in the near future including talent show, chickens, rabbits, photo and craft contest and community fair. He stated that if 4-H'ers were interested in attending the banquet in the fall, it would help to enter as many projects as possible.

Some of the local members who had entries in the county livestock show and won prizes were: Eddie and Jamie Wolsch, Sherry and Tom Lee Rhoads, Wesley and Lanham Martin and Shelley and Rodney Dunham.

Judy White of Lubbock spent several days here this week visiting with her mother Mrs. Bernice White. Lubbock schools, where Judy is teaching, were having spring holidays this week.

The J. V. Ritenours of Abilene were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Klump last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gordan of Clyde and their grandsons, Doug and Jodie Hayhurst of Abilene, were dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Bernice White last Saturday. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Letz, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Letz, and Mrs. Emma Klump last Saturday afternoon.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Travis Beil is back home after undergoing surgery at West Texas Medical Center in Abilene last week.

HEIDENHEIMER'S

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO (March 30, 1923)

Last Monday night a gentle rain began falling, coming right after a day of cold wind that promised to again send the thermometer down to freezing. The rain fell all night until near noon Tuesday, amounting to about one and a quarter inches. Farmers are extremely happy over the wonderful season and will be planting soon.

Hamlin placed first in one of the most extensive and beautiful school exhibits ever seen in Jones County. It was on display in the District Court room. County schools and town schools showing what had been done in the literary, scientific, agricultural and domestic arts lines.

The Opera House presents "The Three Musketeers" starring Douglas Fairbanks. Admission is 20 cents and 50 cents.

Through the efforts of the Mothers' Club of the Nugent School, the Sun Electric Co. of Abilene has installed in the school building, a Dico electric lighting system. The Mothers' Club has been very active throughout the school session. They have bought and paid for a piano for the school auditorium, a sewing machine for the Domestic Science department and have raised about $150 for seating in the auditorium.

TWENTY YEARS AGO (April 3, 1953)

Hamlin people had made contributions totaling $1,400 on the projected goal of $1,740 for the Red Cross drive for 1953, at noon Wednesday reported the local Red Cross officials. Hope that the Hamlin community will exceed its Red Cross membership quota by next Friday, Apr. 10, closing date for the campaign was expressed this week by the drive chairman.

Taxpayers of the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District, covering about 150 square miles in the Hamlin region, will name two members to the school board for the next two-year period when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

Twelve Hamlin High School boys representing the Future Farmers of America walked away with sweepstakes honors Monday afternoon in the annual Abilene Christian College Field Day contests. With entries in only three of the four main events in judging, the Hamlin group racked up the highest Field Day honors from a field of 1,004 4-H Club and FFA boys entering 251 separate teams in the all day affair. Poultry, dairy cow and livestock judging teams from Hamlin were entered.

Thirty-one dairy cattlemen and other interested men and boys attended the monthly meeting of the West Texas Jersey Cattle Club at the Hamlin High School cafeteria Friday evening.

Neinda Philosopher Explains Why Meat Is So High and Covers Other Subjects

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One goes off in several directions this week.

Dear editor:

A man writing for a paper like the Herald shouldn't always get on one topic any given week and ride it to death, so I'm going to touch on a variety of subjects this week.

For example, I understand there are at least 40 million dogs in this country and no telling how many cats, yet in all the newspaper and television interviews with outraged housewives saying it's impossible to feed their family enough meat at present prices, I haven't heard a one complain about the rise in the cost of dog and cat food. I guess husbands and kids realize where this leaves them.

The postal service officials have been complaining about people not putting the proper zip code on their letters, and I can tell them why they don't. It's too hard to remember a five-digit zip code for every town in the United States. If they'd use the same zip code for every town, everybody'd soon have it memorized and there'd be no problem.

Every once in a while the subject of pay television comes up. I'm in favor of it. I can think of a bunch of programs a man ought to get paid to watch.

Speaking of inflation and the high cost of meat, I read in a newspaper last night that it now costs $185,000 a year to keep a Congressman in office. This includes his $42,000 salary, the salaries of all his assistants and secretaries, his telephone and printing bills, a good part of his travel expenses, etc. In other words, it takes, and I've figured this up, 740 calves a year to keep a man in Congress. No wonder meat is so high.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

The annual Camp Fire Girls' Dad and Daughter banquet will be held at the Junior High School gymnasium Saturday at 7 p.m. Each girl will bring the meal for her and her father in a decorated box.

Haskell High School will represent District 6-AA in the Regional one-act play contest to be held in April in Lubbock. They were selected at the competition held here Tuesday in the high school auditorium.

Proceeds from coffee sales in Hamlin businesses Friday totaled $48.02 for the Heart Fund. Coin cards have been distributed at the school and letters have been mailed out to most Jones County residents.

The annual Jones County 4-H "Share the Fun Festival" will be held in the Anson High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m., April 1. An estimated 20 skits, comedy acts, pantomimes and musical skits, will be staged by the ten 4-H Clubs involving nearly 200 4-H Club members.

The annual Scout Exposition will be held locally again this year on May 4. Tickets are now on sale and the boys will earn prizes according to the number of tickets they sell. Tickets are 50 cents for general admission.

NEWS AND VIEWS . . .

And What Have You

have supported this in the past but it became so apparent at the hearing last week.

It is just about impossible to expect to solve all of the problems of a state as big as Texas in a 90-day session every two years. Because of limited time, many of the senators and representatives have several subcommittee or committee hearings going on at the same time.

These hearings are the very heart of our legislative system but how can any representative of the people do it justice when they have two or more hearings going on at the same time. This created somewhat of a problem at the hearing Thursday, one Senator failed to make the hearing because of other conflicts, one Senator had two committees meeting at the same time and was in and out all afternoon. The third Senator, Bob Gammage, who served as chairman at our hearing had two other hearings going on at the same time.

Our own Senator, Jack Hightower, had to pass up attending another hearing to be at ours.

With hundreds of bills introduced each session it is not hard to see how some can not possibly get a fair hearing within a 90-day session.

AFTER THE PARTY IS OVER

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

©Coleman Adv. Ser.,

Have you ever felt like this little girl after a big, exciting day at the Fair, or a party? You know how you feel — excited, exhausted; but you feel good, too. Sometimes you just want to lie down and think about it. But like the little one in this picture you, also, are too tired to remove your party hat or your shoes.

Sometimes it is delightful just to lie down and think of something good and wonderful and happy. It is good just to be still and sort of day-dream about what has happened.

There are other times in our lives when we need to achieve a sense of quietness and think of God. The Psalmist says, "Commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still." Psalm 4:4. God says in Psalms 46:10 "Be still and know that I am God."

We invite you to attend church and sense the still, quiet holiness that is God's presence in the midst of the congregation.

THUMBS DOWN!

This is one print you don't want to leave. It's the print of a 15 year old kid picked up for shoplifting. It's on a police record now — one that will follow him for the rest of his life!

Scare tactics you say? Hardly! Punishment for a first offense can be as much as a $2,000 fine and 5 years in jail, or more depending on the State you live in.

No matter what your state calls it — misdemeanor, petty larceny or felony — SHOP-LIFTING IS STEALING AND STEALING IS A CRIMINAL ACT and is punishable as such. YOUR AGE WILL NOT PROTECT YOU!
